On March 14, 2011, Rochelle Park Police Department conducted a motor vehicle stop of a vehicle driven by the offender. He received summons for obstruction of windshield, driving an unregistered vehicle, driving after driving license/registration is revoked, and no liability insurance or coverage on motor vehicle. On April 1, 2011, the undersigned confronted the offender about the motor vehicle violations and his failure to notify the probation office within 72 hours of law enforcement contact. He admitted to the violations of supervised release and signed a waiver of hearing form, where he agreed to be placed on the location monitoring program for thirty (30) days.
